Notes from the Principal's Office

It was a great long weekend. I was able to spend some special time with my grandson. We went to the Iron Kettle and while going through the very dark and spooky Haunted House I was very surprised to hear a voice behind me say, "Mrs. Smith, is that you?" It was a group of Holy Family students. It was fun to see so many Holy Family families while we were there.

Conferences – You will be receiving conference sign up notes from teachers by the end of the week. Please sign and return your sheet as soon as possible so teachers can set up schedules.

Volunteers – I am still looking for volunteers to help inventory and organize science kits. This is a very flexible job. You can come in during day or evenings. Please contact me by email: paula.k.smith@dor.org or reach me at school, 732-3588.

Christmas Concert: Mark the date – December 9th. More details will be coming home in the very near future.

Open House: Open House tonight from 6:30 – 7:30. Make sure students have their passports checked off so they can receive a dress down pass. The family photo booth is one of the stops, so bring your best smile.
